

Skilled Migration Visas

Skilled Nominated Visa (SC190)

This Visa allows nominated or sponsored skilled workers to live and work permanently in Australia. To apply for this visa you must be nominated by an Australian State or Territory (ACT or NT). You can be either onshore or offshore Australia, when you apply.

May suit if:

- you are under 50
- your occupation is on the Skilled Occupation List
- you did not meet the pass mark required to obtain a Skilled Independent Visa
- you have a positive skills assessment (for your nominated occupation) from the relevant assessing body, like Engineers Australia
- you score a minimum of 60 points on the points test
- you are nominated by the Australian state or territory you wish to settle in
- you have the required level of English language skills
- your EOI through SkillSelect is accepted
- you have relevant work experience in your nominated or closely related occupation to meet the points score (if necessary)
- you need priority processing (this applies once the state or territory offers sponsorship)
- you meet the character and health requirements set out by the Australia Government.
